CAMP PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

A Complete Experience - Camps for Boys and Girls Ages 10-18

The All-American Soccer Camps offer camp participants high-powered instruction in technical skills and tactical strategies. Outstanding coaches work with athletes on an individual basis and provide lectures, training films, and on-the-field training. Team competition allows players to fine-tune soccer skills and develop game awareness. Hamilton College's excellent athletic facilities, which include two all-weather turf fields and eight grass soccer fields, ensure the camper plenty of training and game experience.

Other Features:

- Regulation collegiate soccer ball given to each camper
- Two Camp soccer shirts
- Camp soccer shorts
- Indoor training available
- Camp infirmary on site
- Certified trainer on duty
- Free snacks - drinks, ice cream, etc.
- Swimming Pool

Goalkeeper's Program - Dave Carter, Director

In addition to the regular soccer program, goalies can participate in a specialized goalkeeper's segment that provides the opportunity to develop and improve upon skills unique to the position and game situations.

Dave Carter: Coach Carter was a Division I All-State and All-Northeast Goalkeeper at Oneonta State University. Dave was the Director of Goalkeeping for Fuller Hamlet Soccer Club of Sutton, Massachusetts. Dave has also been the Goalkeeper Coach at Hamilton College since 1998.

THE STAFF:

Perry Nizzi, Boys & Girls Camp Director

As men's soccer coach and associate professor at Hamilton College, Coach Nizzi is in his seventeenth year of an already storied head coaching career at Hamilton College. Coach Nizzi led his team to a record eight conference playoff. His teams have reached double figures in wins seven times. Coach Nizzi's teams have recorded 138-78-26, four NCAA Tournaments and four Conference Championships. Nizzi was named 2000 Conference Coach of the Year and NSCAA/Adidas Regional Coach of the Year. Coach Nizzi is a two-time NSCAA National Coach of the Year. Nizzi was also a nine-time Collegiate Regional Coach of the Year.

Nizzi's soccer teams at Herkimer County Community College won three undefeated National Championships and also hold the longest collegiate sports winning streak at 97 straight wins. Perry is an alumnus of SUNY Cortland where he starred as an All-State mid-fielder. He also received his Master's degree from Cortland. Nizzi was honored with the 1999 National Intercollegiate Soccer Officials Association Recognition Award for outstanding contributions in the field of intercollegiate soccer. Nizzi is a member of the Rome, the Utica, and the SUNY Cortland Halls of Fame and the NJCAA (National Junior College Athletic Association) Hall of Fame.

Pepe Aragon, Assistant Director Boys Camp - U 18 Age Group

The 2013 season marked Coach Aragon's seventeenth year as head coach for the Herkimer County Community College Soccer Program. Aragon has led the Generals to 16 consecutive Regional Championships and six NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS (including 2013)! During his tenure at Herkimer Coach Aragon has been named NSCAA National Coach of the Year five times. In 2008 Aragon received the prestigious Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Faculty Service and was also inducted as a player into the NJCAA National Soccer Hall of Fame. As a player Coach Aragon was a two-time All-American at Herkimer College and went on to star at Bowling Green University. Aragon continued his soccer career in the professional ranks with the Canton Invaders and the Cleveland Caps. In 2000 he was named to the NJCAA All-Century Team as a player.

Donald Dutcher, Assistant Director Boys Camp - U 13 Boys

As Athletic Director at Herkimer County Community College, Coach Dutcher has helped HCCC athletics teams emerge into one of the top athletic programs in the country. Coach Dutcher was an assistant coach at Hamilton College and SUNY Oswego before moving on. Dutcher also coached both the boys' and girls' high school teams at Herkimer to sectional bids. Coach Dutcher was the leading scorer and All-Region striker at Herkimer College and an All-SUNYAC forward and leading scorer at SUNY Utica.

Peterson Jerome, Head Coach - Boys U 18

Coach Jerome has been the head coach at SUNY Utica for twelve years. Coach Jerome has led his Wildcats to three consecutive North East Conference Championships and three NCAA tournament bids. Coach Jerome was also recognized by his peers as the 2010 and 2011 Coach of the Year! Jerome was a NCAA All-American at Rockland High School and repeated as an All-American at Herkimer County Community College. He then went on to Ohio State University where he was the leading scorer and a member of the Soccer America Team. Jerome was selected to the All-Ohio Team as well as the All-Big Ten Conference Team.

Ted Hudock, Assistant Director Girls Camp - U 18 Age Group

Coach Hudock is the former ODP Girls State team coach. His success speaks for itself. In his 11 years as head coach of the Susquehanna Valley HS girls, his teams were sectional finalist twice and semi-finalist seven times. Coach Hudock also coached eight All-State players. As a player Hudock was an All-Region player at Broome Community College. He continued his success at Canisius College where he led the team in goals and assists and was a MAAC All-Conference selection both years.

Tom Basel, Assistant Director Girls Camp - U 13 Age Group

Coach Basel has been the Poland High School girls soccer coach for 19 years. His girls' teams have made the sectional tournament for a record 17 consecutive years! Coach Basel has led his teams to many titles including the 2013 and 2014 Sectional Champions and the 2000 and 2014 girls team were State Finalists! Coach Basel was rewarded by his peers as the 2000 New York State Coach of the Year. Many of his players have continued successful playing careers at the collegiate levels. As a player, Tom was a four-year starter at St. John Fisher College where he was Captain and an All-Conference player.
