Kirner-Johnson 203
 Join Maurice Isserman, the Publius Virgilius Rogers Professor of History at Hamilton College, for a book talk to celebrate his latest publication, Reds: The Tragedy of American Communism. He will offer a short presentation on the book, followed by a book signing. His new work analyzes the fundamentally contradictory nature of the American Communist Party movement. In addition to Reds, copies of some of his previous books, including On the Hill, the official bicentennial history of Hamilton College, will be available for purchase and signing.

3 – 4 p.m. 50TH REUNION ALUMNI COLLEGE: ENDING AGEISM
Kirner-Johnson 125 Bradford Auditorium

From childhood on, we're barraged by messages that it's sad to be old. That wrinkles are embarrassing, and old people useless. Author and activist Ashton Applewhite K'74 believed them too until she figured out where this prejudice comes from and the damage it does. In this provocative, funny, and deeply informed talk, Applewhite explains the roots of ageism — in society and in our own age denial — and how it divides and diminishes us. Whether you're older or hoping to get there, this talk will cheer you up, shake you by the shoulders, and change the way you see the rest of your life.

CLASS OF 1979 ALUMNI COLLEGE: THE SUPREME COURT'S DECISION IN 303 CREATIVE V. ELENIS — A COLLISION BETWEEN FREE SPEECH AND LGBTQ+ RIGHTS?

Kirner-Johnson 201

Reprising his legal role from the 40th reunion, Michael J. Grygiel '79, P'23 will dissect this crucial Supreme Court case. Last June, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that the Colorado Anti-Discrimination Act could not compel the plaintiff to design wedding websites for same-sex couples because it would violate her First Amendment right to freedom of speech and freedom to exercise religion. Mike will examine how the court's widely publicized and controversial decision is both destabilizing and threatening to long-accepted principles of equality, fairness, and inclusion. The Class of 1989 may be especially interested in hearing from their one-time First Amendment and constitutional law teacher.

1:30 – 2:30 p.m.

HOCKEY AT HAMILTON: THE NEXT STAGE FOR SAGE

Emerson Lobby (near Bristol Pool and Alumni Gym)

After decades of service to generations of Hamilton hockey teams, the historic Sage Rink is now slated for a transformational renovation aimed at securing its place of honor at the center of NESAC for a new era. We will hear updates about the renovation plans by Athletic Director Jon Hind '80 and get a look at the progress in Sage Rink with a tour led by Associate Vice President for Facilities & Planning Mike Klapmeyer.

1:30 – 2:30 p.m.

GEORGE GERSHWIN: MORE THAN MUSIC, WITH NANCY ROSS K'71 AND BOB ROSS '69

Sadove Student Center

Nancy Ross K'71 and Bob Ross '69 are celebrating their mother's 100th birthday this summer in a unique way: by paying tribute to George Gershwin, her first cousin, at the Chautauqua Institute. Stop by and hear their fascinating family connection to the famous composer, who was also an artist, art collector, and early champion of jazz music and musicians. They will share more information about the July session they have designed for Chautauqua in honor of Gershwin and the 100th anniversary of "Rhapsody in Blue," a documentary trailer about Gershwin that features interviews with their mother, and much more.

2 – 3 p.m.

BREAKFAST

Reunion Village on Dunham Green

Sadly, the time has come to part ways for a little while. Join your friends and classmates for one last HURRAH before you pack the car and drive down the Hill, as you have done so many times before. In that moment, know that it is not “good-bye” but rather, “We’ll be here when you have the time to come home again. For no matter where you travel, Hamilton will always be at the center of it all.”

8:15 – 10 a.m.

JBA, 1812, AND COUPER GUILD BREAKFAST

Kennedy Center Wilhelm Lobby

By invitation. President Wippman cordially invites members of the Joel Bristol Associates, 1812 Leadership Circle, and Couper Guild to join him for breakfast.

8:30 a.m. –
2:30 p.m.

RETURN ROOM KEYS

Kirner-Johnson

Stop by to turn in your keys and say goodbye to your favorite staff members and the students who helped make this weekend one-of-a-kind. Alternatively, you may leave your keys on the dresser in your room.

9:15 – 9:50 a.m.

BALDWIN MEN’S REUNION CHOIR REHEARSAL

Chapel

Under the direction of Todd Monsell ’98.

10:30 – 11:30 a.m.

SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE

Chapel

Before you leave, take a moment to reflect on your experience on the Hill and to acknowledge those who were part of it all and are no longer with us. Includes performances by the mixed-voice Reunion Choir, directed by Todd Monsell ’98, and the all-male Baldwin choir, directed by R. Douglas Sheldon ’63, and will feature Interim Director of Spiritual and Religious Life and Chaplain Reverend Y. Trevor Beauford, Reverend Daniel Ruff, S.J. ’74, and Carol Goodman Kaufman K’74.

11 a.m. – 1 p.m.

STRAWBERRIES AND CHAMPAGNE FAREWELL BRUNCH

Kirkland Green

An event open to all, in honor of the Kirkland legacy.
